STUDENT

Just like yesterday, the thought of you Takes me away.
Away to a time that was truly yours
And mine.

To a time when I thought of you And realized this love I felt was Unbelievably true.

So much we had that never has Another, matched this beautiful love I felt within. But I close my eyes now and Can only pretend.

We grew apart, My first broken heart. You never loved me, But why can't you see?

I can't ever love again, So now where do I begin?

I've been told to forget the past, But what I found, I had looked so long for, And you were there at last.

Looking at you now, it's hard to see. "I can't smile without you,"
Because not many have you loved,
Many but oh so few.

The lion banner sways and falls in The horror-haunted gloom; A scarlet dragon rustles by, Born on winds of doom. In heaps the shining horsemen lie, Where the thrusting lances break, And deep in the haunted mountains, The lost black gods awake. Dead hands grope in the shadows, The stars turn pale with fright, For this is the Dragons Hour, The triumph of fear and night.

Soaring Eagles onward flight,
Conquer them all as they
Come into sight.
Rise to the highest standard
To be seen,
Rise to unite the rest of our dreams.
Live above us in the trees,
Fly gracefully to your dream.
Love the grounds in which you own,
Think of no other than your home.

Soaring Eagles onward flight,
Never give up to life's blinding
Light.
Spread your wings and fly so high,
To stand up tall for the
Green and white.

CONTRIBUTIONS

The ability of a person, Cannot be fully proved, Until he has accomplished, More than he first set out to do.

Those that have tried and failed, Are not losers in a true sense. For they are winning new knowledge, About their surrounding world.

But are the winners really happy, When they have done all they can do? When their picture is in the paper, And their names in the news?

For people are only human, And whether they win or lose, The true test is graded, By the things they have tried to do.

Cindy Solá

Friends are wonderful to have,
To share your good times and your bad.
A friend will always listen to what
You say, no matter if its important
Or if it takes all day.
A friend is always there when you
Need them most, if your in trouble
Or just need a boast.
So when your happy or lonesome
Or need a broken heart to mend,
Somehow, somewhere you will find
A friend.

The '79 Eagle Football Team consisted of — Ist row J. Hill, J. Case, R. Jones, J. Heath, R. Davis, J. Justus, T. Greene, P. Crowder, D. Boyles, J. Cornwell, C. Blackwell, G. Hill, K. Shufford, 2nd row — L. Hill, A. Messer, B. McCall, R. Jones, R. Payseur, M. Byrd, T. Moore, B. Whitmire, J. Dorn, K. Henry, J. Morgan, D. Revels, S. Garrison, J.

The first kick-off, the nine consecutive wins and the only loss were part of the season that was shared by the fans, cheerleaders, and by each individual player. The first three non-conference games were won with ambition and an abundance of determination to become a winning team. The most important Henderson County team that the Eagles played was the Hendersonville Bearcats. With Joey Cornwell's kicking ability the Eagles won with a 36 yard field goal in a 3-0 victory. But the hard work continued, with the meeting of their conference arch rival the Pisgah Bears. Pisgah came on E.L. Justus Field with Eagle meat in their eyes but the Eagles held them off in a double-overtime win 20-14. The next five conference games were not easy wins because each team wanted to knock us out of the #I ranking. The players knew what was in store if they kept winning and played a good respectable game. The last game of the season would decide who would be the respentative of the Big Mac.

The Eagles came into the game with an unblemished record of 9-0 where Tuscola had a 7-1-1 record. Both teams were vying for the title of Big Mac Champion. The Tuscola Mountaineers would have to beat the Eagles by 9 or more points to advance to the playoffs. While the Eagle offense could not get started to move the ball, the mountaineers came off with a 12-2 victory. The mountaineers advanced to the playoffs. The East Henderson Eagles, Erwin Warriors, and the Tuscola Mountaineers tied for the Big Mac Title. One would have to agree the '79-'80 football season proved to be the most rewarding season ever. This year's athletes worked hard as a team and as individuals and gained experience which created a bond among the athletes on each team. Congratulations to this years East Henderson High Football team on their outstanding 9-1 record.

LADY

679-680

It is the second this year. They have done this, with the selection of their new Coach LuLu Morgan. The ream test shown great enthusiasm and determination during practice. Their goal this year was to win 50% of their games. Records the Lady Eagles accomplished were, beating Edneyville 53-52, which allowed them to take first place in the Big Apple Tournament. A school record was set when East played West High. The leadership ability of the Seniors, combined with the talented underclassmen, and the valuable experience of two coaches may well prove to be the best season in East High history.

E R

"... People we are going to learn to play volleyball on the floor." That is just one phrase that could be heard in the Gym during the '79 Volleyball season at East Henderson. This years team was close in the sense that everyone played together, talked to each other, laughed and cried in times of stress and strain. Coach Morgan can be assured that we all did learn something this year, which is to stay away from "Sandbags and Kneepads." This years team consisted of Juniors and Seniors. They are; Kim "Frog" Maxwell, Tammy "Mama" Hensley, Lynn Burrell, Cathy Meyers, Kim Williams, Sharon "Rufus" Laughter, Lois Hebb, Cindy "Bubbles" Clark, Roxanne Halford, Karen "Paleface" Thompson, Patty Whitmire, Karen "Buffy" Cooley.

HEERLEADER

VARSITY

The 1979-80 Varsity Cheerleaders with four returning members and two new members began their activities this year with National Cheerleading Association summer camp at Furman University where they received four blue ribbons and a spirit stick.

Their various activities throughout the year included leading their football team to victory, selling ribbons to all spirited students, serving lunch to sports players, and leading many East High Eagle fans in spirited pep rallies.

With their vivacious smiles the cheerleaders made winning a joy and losing endurable.

CAMP ARROWHEAD 692-8362 The 1980 edition of the Highlander marks the beginning of a new decade and as a new decade unfolds so do new fantasies. The dreams and memories of "The Year of the Eagle" have been captured upon these pages to be forever impressed in our minds. Countless hours of determination and hard work have gone into the preparation of the yearbook and special recognition must be paid to those who deserve it. Andy Johnson, Jerry Gay, Denise Cooper, Bill Hydrick and the entire Highlander Staff whose endless support made the yearbook possible. Even in the panic-stricken hour of a deadline, not one member faltered. I sincerely hope the year nineteen hundred and eighty proves to be the introduction to the most unforgettable decade in the history of East Henderson High School.

Linda Jackson

This has been one of the most unforgetable years ever at East Henderson High School. By capturing these moments on paper through words and pictures, this book is an attempt by the Highlander staff to make this year even more unforgettable.

The Highlander staff and I have enjoyed the opportunity of putting this book together for you. My sincere hope is that the reading of this book gives you as much pleasure as the creating has already given us.

My gratitude and thanks go to Mrs. Andy Johnson and Mr. Jerry Gay, without whose help this book would not have been possible. But, most of all, I thank you, the students of E.H.H.S. Each of you has made my job easier by proving this truly to be, "The Year of the Eagle."

Stanley Ward
